[4 pts.] Label the following statements as True or False or with the answer.

(a) Vector addition on $n$-dimensional Euclidean spaces is commutative.

(b) There exists three non-zero orthogonal vectors in $\mathbb{R}^2$.

(c) How many vectors can there be with zero length?

(d) The answer to everything is